ABSTRACT

[0032]An implementation of stream segments and media sensors in the reference software of MPEG-4, ISO/IEC 14496-5, is presented. In some embodiments, the implementation involves the definition of a new class in the Core module, namely segmentDescriptor, and new fields and methods in existing classes in the Core module. The implementation requires few changes to the source code of the Renderer module.